Blame It On My Youth

Music by Oscar Levant
Lyric by Edward Heyman

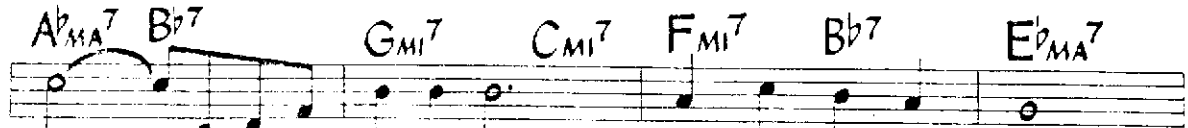

A

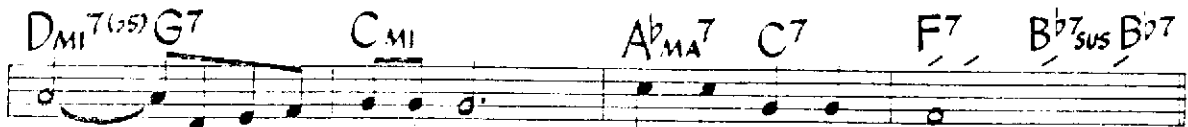

If I ex-pect-ed love— when first we kissed, Blame it on my youth;—

If on-ly just for you— I did ex-ist. Blame it on my youth.—

I— be-lieved in ev-ry-thing, Like a child of three:

You— meant more than an- y- thing, All the world to me.

you were on my mind— all night and day, Blame it on my youth;—

If I for- got to eat— and sleep and pray, Blame it on my youth.—

If— I cried a lit- tle bit when first I learned the truth.

Don't blame it on my heart, — Blame it on my youth.—

(As played by Airtó)

The main musical score for 'Creek' consists of several staves. The top staff is for the bass (bs.) and features a rhythmic pattern with chords F13, F13sus, F13, and F13sus. Below this, a section labeled [A] contains staves for soprano, flute, and electric piano (sop, fl., & elec. pn.) and piano (pn.). The piano part includes chords F7, Bb, and F7, with a note that the piano plays the lower line. This is followed by a piano fill and a section where the piano plays chords (Bb7, Eb7). Another piano fill is indicated, followed by a section where the piano plays the upper line (C7, F7). A section labeled (pn. acet) is also present. The score then transitions to a section labeled [B] for solos, featuring a staff with a series of slashes and a note that the 2nd x solo starts. This is followed by a section with chords Bb7, Eb7, C7, and F7, and a note that after solos, D.S. al Coda.

The 'Vamp, Solo, and Fade' section includes a staff for the bass (bs.) with chords F13 and F13sus. To the right, there are two options for the F7 bass during solos: one with a specific rhythmic pattern and another with a simpler pattern.

Piano doesn't play chords when doubling melody or playing harmony. Sop. & fl. play melody throughout. Play head twice before solos, once after.

(bass)

Handwritten musical score for "The Sound of Silence" by Simon & Garfunkel. The score is written on a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The melody is in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The score includes a key signature change to D-flat major (three flats) in the second measure. The piece ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The handwritten notes include "Bb9sus" and "F9sus".

Handwritten musical notation for the bass line of 'The Rose Tree'. The notation is on a single staff with a treble clef. It consists of four measures. The first measure has a whole note chord labeled C^9_{sus} . The second measure has a whole note chord labeled B^9_{sus} . The third measure has a whole note chord labeled F^9_{sus} . The fourth measure has a whole note chord labeled F^9_{sus} . The melody is written in the treble clef, starting on a whole note C^4 in the first measure, followed by a half note D^4 and a quarter note E^4 in the second measure, then a half note F^4 and a quarter note G^4 in the third measure, and finally a half note A^4 and a quarter note B^4 in the fourth measure. The melody is marked with a slur over the first two measures and another slur over the last two measures. The bass line is marked with a slur over the first two measures and another slur over the last two measures. The tempo is marked 'Allegretto' and the time signature is '3/4'.

The handwritten musical notation for exercise B consists of two staves. The top staff begins with a treble clef and contains four measures. Above the first measure is the chord symbol F⁹_{sus}, above the second is B♭⁹_{sus}, and above the third is F⁹_{sus}. The bottom staff begins with a bass clef and also contains four measures. Above the first measure is the chord symbol B♭⁹_{sus}, and above the third is F⁹_{sus}. A circled 'B' is written at the end of the fourth measure of both staves. Above the final measure of the top staff, there is a note in parentheses: "(bass simile)".

LYRIC FOR FINAL HEAD

Once there was a drummer who was straight from New York,
 Tourin' the country with Wardell Gray
 And hey, we could sure say of the drums, he was the toast,
 Really the most, We don't wanna boast, but
 All the crazy chicks would hound him, all the swingin' bands would sound him.
 Then one day he saw the one that made his head whirl,
 He met and married the same little girl,
 What a blend, they are the end, they're real cool, house with a pool,
 Crazy scenes, blame it on the beans.

Music by Charles Fox
Lyric by Norman Gimbel
(As sung by Roberta Flack)

♩ = 118

A

I heard he sang a good song, I heard he had a style, And so I came to see him to listen for a while. And there he was this young boy, a stranger to my eyes.

Strum-ming my pain with his fin-gers, Sing-ing my life with his words.
Kill-ing me soft-ly with his song, Kill-ing me soft-ly with his song, Tell-ing my whole life with his words, Kill-ing me soft-ly with his song. (fine)

2nd VERSE

I felt all flushed with fever, embarrassed by the crowd,
I felt he found my letters and read each one out loud.
I prayed that he would finish but he just kept right on. (Strumming, etc.)

3rd VERSE

He sang as if he knew me, in all my dark despair.
And then he looked right through me as if I wasn't there.

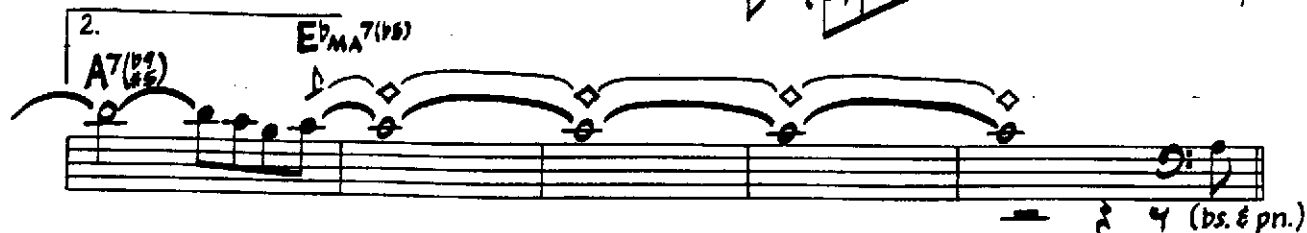

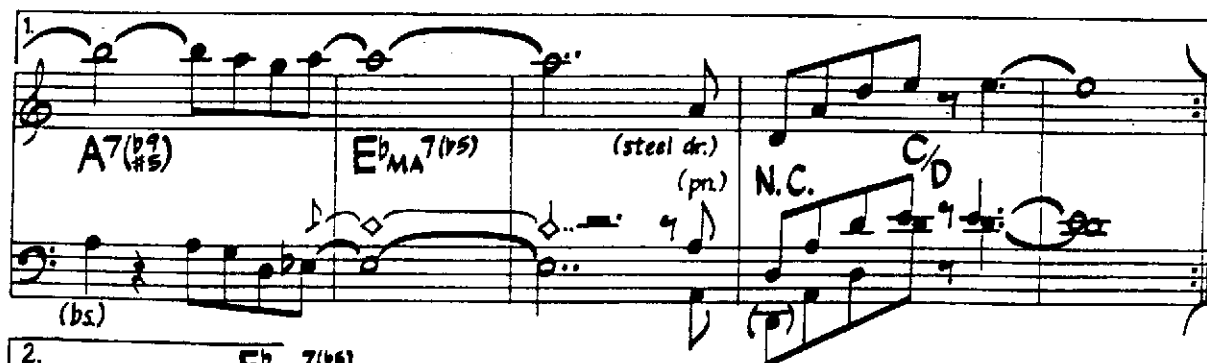

But he was there this stranger singing clear and strong. (Strumming, etc.)

2nd VERSE

You left me with a Keno card,
This life in Vegas sure ain't hard,
I ran it up to fifty grand,
Cashed in and held it in my hand,
That kind of word can get around
And make a lost love turn up found,
I hear you knockin' at my door
But you know you ain't livin' here no more,
It's too bad, baby, I think you made your move too soon.

3rd VERSE

I've been from Spain to Tokyo,
From Africa to Ohio,
I never try to make the news,
I'm just a man who plays the blues,
I take my loving everywhere,
I come back and they still care,
One love ahead, one love behind,
One in my arms and one on my mind,
One thing they know: I never make my move too soon.

Richie Beirach
(As played by John Abercrombie)

The musical score for "Nightlake" is written for guitar and piano. It consists of several systems of music. The first system shows the guitar part with a key signature of one flat and a 6/4 time signature. The piano part is indicated by a slash. Chords are written below the piano staff: $D^b_{MI} (b13) (MA7)$, $F_{MI} 9 (MA7)$, and A^b/E . The second system continues the melody with chords $D^b_{MA} 7 (\#11)$, $D^{\circ} 7$, and $E_{MA} 7 / E^b$. The third system features D/E^b , $D^b_{MA} 7 / E^b$, and $F^{\#}_{MI} (MA7) F7 (\#9)$. The fourth system is a guitar fill section with chords $B^b_{MI} (add 11) (add 9)$, $F7 (\#9)$, $B^b_{MI} (add 11) (add 9)$, and $(B_{MA} 7 / F) F7 (\#5)$. The fifth system is the ending, marked "molto rit.", with chords $B^b_{MI} (add 11) (add 9)$, $F7 (\#9)$, and $D_{MI} 9$.

(Ending)

The ending section of the score is marked "molto rit.". It features a guitar fill section with chords $B^b_{MI} (add 11) (add 9)$, $F7 (#9)$, and $D_{MI} 9$. The piano part is indicated by a slash.

Chord in parenthesis is alternate change.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in a single system with three systems of staves. The first system consists of two staves, the second of three staves, and the third of two staves. The music is written in a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is primarily in the upper voice, with a prominent triplet of eighth notes in the second system. The lower voice provides a steady accompaniment. The score concludes with a final cadence in the third system.

Sounds one octave lower than written. All notes are harmonics on the bass, except those notes below third space E in the bass clef. (D#s are produced by fretting D# and playing the harmonic up a 4th on the same string).

(bass)

Musical score for "The Rose Tree" in C major, 2/4 time. The score is written for voice and piano. The voice part is on a single staff, and the piano accompaniment is on two staves. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The score is divided into two systems. The first system contains the first two measures of the piece. The second system contains the next two measures. The piano accompaniment features a prominent C7 chord in the first measure of the first system, marked with a "C7" and a "pn." (piano) dynamic. The melody is simple and catchy, with a clear 4-beat structure.

The second system of the musical score for 'The Rose Tree' consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from the first system, starting with a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4, B4, and C5, then a quarter note B4, and finally a half note A4. The lower staff continues the accompaniment, starting with a quarter note G3, followed by eighth notes A3, B3, and C4, then a quarter note B3, and finally a half note A3. The key signature remains one flat (Bb), and the time signature is 4/4.

The first system of the musical score for 'The Rose Tree' consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melody with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a bass line. A 'C7' chord symbol is written above the first measure of the bass line. The system is divided into two measures by a vertical bar line.

Musical score for "The Girl on the Train" by Lisa Fiedler. The score is written for piano (C7) and features a melody line with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked "Moderato". The score includes a piano introduction, a main melody, and a section labeled "C7" with a key signature change to C major. The score is divided into two systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system includes a piano introduction and a main melody. The second system includes a section labeled "C7" and a section labeled "(elec. pn.)". The score ends with a double bar line.

f (bs. w/ pr. LH)

The first staff of music is in 4/4 time, starting with a drum entry marked '(dr.)'. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes. Chords are indicated above the staff: E_{MI}^7 , $E_{/F#}$, $G^{#7}_{(9)}$, $C^{#13}_{SUS}$, $D^{#9}_{SUS}$, $C^{#13}_{SUS}$, $D^{#9}_{SUS}$, $C^{#13}_{SUS}$, and $A_{MA}^7(#5)$. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present, along with the instruction '(bs. w/ pr. LH)'.

A (organ) (gtr.) (1st x: organ doubles gtr. 2nd x: organ plays harmony ('organ' part))

$C^{#13}$

Section A begins with a boxed letter 'A'. The organ part is marked '(organ)' and the guitar part is marked '(gtr.)'. A note indicates that the first time the organ doubles the guitar, and the second time it plays harmony. The chord $C^{#13}$ is shown below the staff.

(gtr.) (organ) $A_{MA}^7(#5)$ $C^{#13}$

The third staff continues the organ and guitar parts. The organ part is marked '(organ)' and the guitar part is marked '(gtr.)'. The chords $A_{MA}^7(#5)$ and $C^{#13}$ are indicated below the staff.

(C $^{#13}$) (gtr.) (organ) $A_{MA}^7(#5)$

The fourth staff continues the organ and guitar parts. The organ part is marked '(organ)' and the guitar part is marked '(gtr.)'. The chords $C^{#13}$ and $A_{MA}^7(#5)$ are indicated below the staff.

2nd VERSE

The right hangs its head
As the fool crawls into bed,
Still his hungry heart begs to be fed
All the words she once, that she said, that she said.

So then he grabs his Chevrolet
In one more attempt to get away
But thoughts of all the crimes of passion lay,
Lay in his way.

3rd VERSE

Romance falls like rain
But all the motives are insane
Every time that he plays the game he feels the pain,
He feels the pain, who is to blame, who is to blame, who is to blame?

And then he finds a joint that's jive,
Guys are spinning girls like 45's,
All of the live bait sinks for his lines,
They are so high.

4th VERSE

He knows he is beat
As his heart puts on the heat,
Run from the street that don't even fit his feet.
Don't fit his feet, now he can see, now he can really see, now he can

Tell him where's a telephone,
He can beg to let the fool come home,
He tells her that his life's a drag alone,
Can't be alone.
